FIFTEEN CENTS

Sequoits Go After Sectional Crown

They are conference champions, regional champions and the proud owners of a 22-5 record. But Antioch's Sequoits go after their biggest victories of the year, starting tonight.

Coach Roger Andrews' talented basketball team is aiming for a sectional championship at Rock Valley Junior College. They play Rockford Auburn at 7:30 p.m. (Antioch fans driving to the tournament site can find directions in the sports section.)

If the Sequoits can beat Auburn tonight, they will return to Rockford Friday at 7:30 p.m. to play for the sectional title. Their opponent will be the winner of a game played last night between McHenry and Loves Park Harlem.

The four sectional tournament teams appear evenly matched. McHenry has a 23-4 record, Harlem is 19-8 and Auburn is 17-9.

Antioch beat Auburn 53-52 in the Rockford Classic earlier in the season. The Sequoits also own a 61-59 victory over McHenry.

The sectional title apparently will go to whichever of the four teams plays its finest brand of basketball.

IF THE SEQUOITS lose tonight, their season is over and they finish with a 22-6 record -

School Board Elections Apr. 12

Ten school board members will be selected by Antioch area voters in the Saturday, Apr. 12 elections.

Persons seeking school board posts have until Friday, Mar. 21, to file petitions of candidacy. The positions are non-paying.

Tuesday, Mar. 25, is the last day candidates can withdraw from races and not be listed on ballots.

Candidates need more than 50 signatures on their petitions, which must be filed with school board secretaries. They also must file statements of economic interest and campaign fund disclosure statements.

AT ANTIOCH HIGH School there are two three-year terms and one two-year term on the ballot. The three-year terms of Glenn Moore and Howard Bonner are expiring along with the two-year term of Tim Walsh, who was appointed to fill a vacancy created when Dr. Al Bucar resigned last year.

At Antioch Grade School, the three-year terms of LaVerne Woods and Miss Mildred LaPlant are expiring.

At Grass Lake School, John Steitz and Henry Nohava are completing three-year terms and the two-year term of Jeanne Handschiegel is expiring.

Globetrotters Will Bring Their Famous Show To Antioch

In 1976 the Harlem Globetrotters and the U.S.A. celebrate an important birthday. The nation will make the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The Globetrotters will be rounding out their 50th season of basketball wizardry.

Like the country they have represented so well, the Globetrotters have undergone some astounding changes over the years.

In 1927 the Trotters were born. They had never seen Harlem and their first "globe trotting" took them 50 miles west of Chicago to the small Illinois town of Hinckley, where the Globes played and won their first game.

The Globetrotters have since become an authentic slice of Americana, their familiar uniform as identifiable around the world as the stars and stripes of which it was born.

"The World's Greatest Family Entertainment" ... Harlem Globetrotters basketball comes to Antioch on Apr. 3, 7:30 p.m., at Antioch Community High School, for one game sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Kids, kids and more kids. The Fun Fair sponsored by the Antioch Grade School P.T.A. last Sunday was its usual success. The gym was packed all afternoon with kids and some parents as well trying out their luck to win a hat, goldfish or whatever prize caught their fancy. Seems like the goldfish booth is always the busiest. Lots of work for P.T.A. members, but oh so rewarding when you see the results of the proceeds at the school and the fun the kids have as well.

The Cleven and Maglio families enjoyed a long week-end of snowmobiling and winter fun visiting Ed and Karen Ring in Sugar Camp, Wis. The weather was great and the Rings sent a big hello to all their Antioch friends.

Nice to hear Dave Fosmark is home recuperating from surgery. The first thing he asked his Mom for was a T-Bone steak and he ate every bite, too. That's a good sign of recovery, I'd say.

Ester Aiani is enjoying the sunshine in southern Arkansas, Tennessee and Texas while vacationing with friends Anne and Richard Swanson of Tinley Park, Ill. The group also plans to visit the famous Jardine Pecan Ranch in Alabama during their travels. Sounds like lots of fun for Ester - sure hope she can bring some of that warm weather home with her.

Good luck to the Sequoits as they enter the Rockford Sectionals tonight. Best of luck also to the girls varsity basketball team who will take on Zion Benton this Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Zion classic.

The gym at the Upper Grade School was busy Saturday night when the A.P.T. had gym night. It sure was a lot of fun and they hope even more parents will join them on the 22nd.

Birthday congrats to Kevin Kelly and Gail Fields on the 13th, to Carrie Irving, Joe Lupa and Joy Frook on the 14th to Father Eugene Keusal, Tom Haley, Ruby Vos, Don Irving and Sandi Cunningham on the 15th, to Donna Haase and John Christensen on the 16th and to Bud Holtz and Dawn Woods on the 17th and to Pat Herbert on the 18th.

Belated anniversary wishes to Mr. and Mrs. David Nissen who celebrated on March 11.

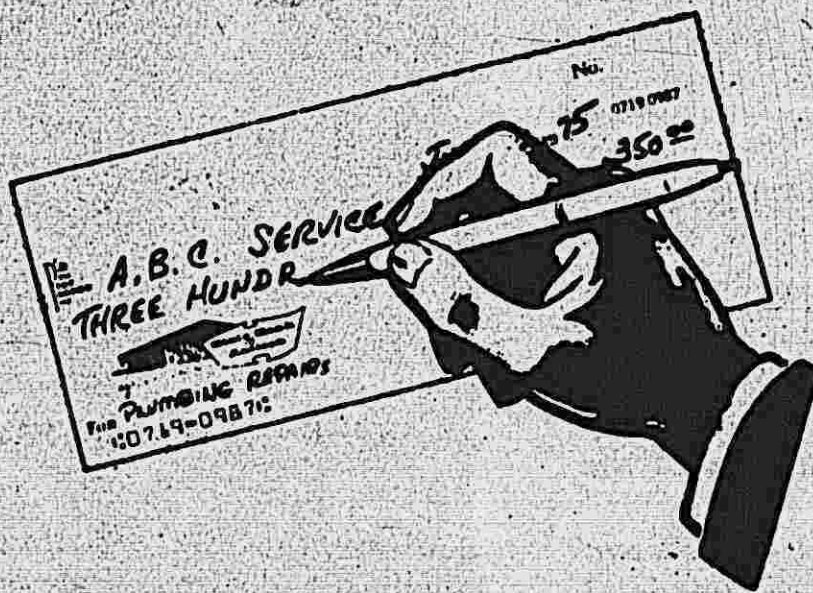

Remember, get your tickets now for the V.I.P. dinner. It's always a fun evening and tickets are going fast.

Also, tickets are on sale now for the Globetrotters - performing at the Antioch High School on Thursday, Apr. 3 at 7:30.

See ya,
Annie Mae

Home Repair Peddlers

This is the time of year when many people begin thinking about home improvements and repairs. But the Illinois State Bar Association warns that this is also the time of year when some home owners will find they have been victimized by phony contractors who have no intention of delivering the services promised and paid for.

Most contractors are honest and hardworking, but the gyp peddler still exists, extracting hundreds and thousands of dollars from unsuspecting customers.

There are several things the home owner can do to insure a contractor is reputable. Don't be impatient and accept the first contractor who comes along. Although some reputable contractors solicit business door-to-door or by telephone, be wary of such solicitations until the credentials of the contractor can be checked.

One easy method of checking on a contractor is by inquiring of relatives and friends who may be aware of previous projects undertaken by the contractor. In most areas there is a better business bureau or chamber of commerce which monitors complaints against such individuals and firms. And, of course, a careful check should include references from the contractor including the names of customers for whom the contractor has performed similar work.

The home owner should beware of one common ploy used by the phony contractor. This is the "referral gimmick" in which the customer is promised a bargain price in return for the contractor being able to use the home owner's name and show off the home as a reference to future customers. In some cases, the home owner may even be promised a commission on any new customers that result. The reputable contractor using quality material and workmanship is not likely to use this sales technique.

BARRY GOLDWATER

U.S. Could Have Built the SST

By SEN. BARRY M. GOLDWATER

The United States could have built the controversial supersonic transport (SST) without destroying the earth's atmosphere. What's more the SST could have been put into operation without threatening the human population of the earth with an epidemic of skin cancer.

These statements may sound, a bit strange to the many Americans who bought the scare claims of the SST opponents when the project was under consideration in the U.S. Senate.

The atmospheric and cancer arguments were raised by many people who should have known better back in 1971 when it was decided that the United States would not build a prototype. And this decision held even though the Soviets, the British and the French were moving ahead with their own programs.

BUT NOW, four years later, the U.S. Department of Transportation has released a study showing that the scare claims of 1971 actually had no basis in fact.

The study, which is the result of a three-year scientific investigation, revealed the SST shows no measurable threat to the earth's atmosphere, and new technology has been developed to take care of any threat that might arise in the future.

And, of course, the study rejects fears that the SSTs would cause massive increases in skin cancer through breakdowns in the earth's ozone layer.

PERHAPS THE vital aspect of the 1971 controversy was the fact that many people who opposed the SST seemed to think the United States controlled all of the earth's atmosphere. The Senate action which killed the SST program, of course, had no influence whatsoever on the SST programs of other countries.

It predicted we would get from 3 to 10 inches of snow dumped on us last week, and that's exactly what happened.

Reeves Drug Store and The Vault Restaurant, we now have that delightful, tempting new place known as White's Ice Cream Parlor.

My daughter and I dropped in at The Vault last Saturday and had the hugest, most delicious banana split of our lives.

We wondered if it was a world record, so we checked the "Guinness Book of World Records."

Get this: The most monstrous ice cream sundae ever concocted weighed 833 pounds and was built by a fellow in Wooster, Ohio, in July of 1971. It contained 42 flavors and 50 pounds of chocolate fudge syrup. But this Wooster fellow wasn't satisfied, so a year later he created another sundae that weighed 1,551 pounds, had 67 flavors, and used up 144 pounds of chocolate syrup.

We don't want to mention any names, but there are some fellows down on Antioch's Main Street whom we suspect helped eat that one.

Faith Lutheran clinched the Lakes Lutheran Athletic Conference basketball title last week by beating Friedens Lutheran at Kenosha 51-41.

Then the Faith Lutheran Lakers "frosted the cake" by whipping Immanuel Lutheran of Waukegan 57-27 to end their conference with a perfect 12-0 record.

Mike Lischewski did some tremendous scoring for the local team, hitting 40 points in Kenosha and 37 in Waukegan. John Lundgren contributed 9 and 8 points in the two games.

Lischewski topped conference scoring with 382 points and a 31.8 average. Lundgren finished with a 14.9 average.

It was Faith Lutheran's second straight conference title. Last year the Lakers had an 11-1 record and Lischewski was the top scorer then, too, with 315 points.

Mike Pinkham Wins $15 in Basketball Contest

Eleven-year-old Mike Pinkham predicted Antioch would win last Friday's regional championship game against Grant by seven points.

He hit it right on the head. The final score was 59-52. So Mike, of 413 Orchard St. in Antioch, wins the $15 first prize in last week's Antioch News basketball contest.

There was a tie for second place. Arthur Doty picked Antioch by six points and Stuart Hofmann picked the Sequoias by eight.

Each will receive a gift certificate worth $7.50 at the Antioch Firestone store.

THIS WEEK'S contest will feature prizes of $15, $10 and $5. The entry blank appears elsewhere in today's Antioch News.

The trick is to pick the winner of the sectional tournament at Rockford, and the number of points by which the champions will win Friday night's final game.

The tournament begins Tuesday night with McHenry playing Loves Park Harlem. On Wednesday night Antioch will play Rockford Auburn. The championship game will be played Friday night.

Since contest entries close Friday at 5 p.m., the smart forecasters will wait until they see which teams win the Tuesday and Wednesday games and then make their predictions after that.

The four teams in the sectional tournament appear quite evenly matched.

Grass Lake Discusses Drug Education Program

A special session of the Grass Lake School Board was held recently to discuss the expansion of the Health and Drug Education program dealing with drugs, alcohol and tobacco.

Student counseling, teacher workshops, trips to hospitals and other area institutions are being investigated. Representatives from the PTO will be attending monthly meetings in Antioch.

The second regular board meeting was held Feb. 25. The board approved the Gallery Books program. The school will be purchasing 1,720 books for the library and classrooms. Books will be evaluated by the teachers and students prior to selection.

THE EIGHTH grade legislation was presented to the board. It approved the installation of two basketball rims and backboards on the playground. Uniforms will be provided for both girls and boys teams, and a car wash will be held by the eighth grade on the school grounds to raise funds.

A joint committee of three citizens and two teachers is to be formed to establish eligibility rules for 1975-76 school year. Interested parents should contact the school office.

THE POLICY committee presented the following for consideration of the board: Eligibility standards, policy making and procedures; and student management during non-class time. Suggestions from parents are encouraged in these areas.

The welfare committee presented a number of items for consideration. Among them were an insurance coverage program; salary schedule for 1975-76 and related fringe benefits, and a remedial reading program plus an art program.

Contracts for Miss Penny Lans and Mrs. Mary Bicanic were approved for fifth and sixth grade classes respectively.

DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL

ABC's of Travel

By BARB CORPIN

It helps to "Know Before You Go."

Many otherwise well-acclimated international travelers dread going through customs with no real cause. Customs processing should be, and normally is a very quick and simple procedure, particularly if you are well-versed in advance as to the rules and regulations.

There is a U.S. Customs booklet "Know Before You Go" and it is available through your local travel agency or passport office to make your customs passage less of a chore.

GENERALLY SPEAKING, gifts and other items as well as your purchases exceeding $100 ($200 for items purchased in Guam, American Samoa or the U.S. Virgin Islands) are dutiable.

By registering such items as cameras and designer dresses with customs at the airport before departure, you can avoid argument and the possibility of having to pay duty more than once on the same item.

More complete information, including the percentage of duty which applies to a number of items, will all be found in the same booklet: "Know Before You Go." Those of you who might want more information can write directly to the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

ANTIQUe BOTTLE CLUB MEETING

On 83 - 1 Mile South Of 173

Visitors Welcome

For information call

John Fanella, computer.

There's a "device" in this room that's equipped with an immense memory bank that can receive customer complaints, sort through a maze of lines and cables, then send a crew to the trouble spot, all in a matter of minutes. That's him in the striped shirt.

His name is John Fanella and he's one of the many Edison dispatchers who are ready for action 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Because when there's an emergency, it's the dispatcher who gets the call. He's the man who uses raw information and his powers of deduction to estimate where, along the thousands of miles of overhead lines and underground cable, the problem lies. He's the man who then sends out the emergency crews to track it down and solve it. And because electricity is so vital to the welfare of a city, he must do all this with computer-like efficiency—whether the problem is an overloaded transformer or a tornado.

John Fanella has been through storms so bad that emergency crews had to be called in from as far away as Colorado. He's worked through the night restoring electricity to a factory so people could go back to work in the morning. He's even sent out a man to rescue a pet cat stranded on a pole.

In a day when some companies rely heavily on the impersonal response of a computer, we're glad to have John and our other dispatchers. As he puts it, "I have the highest respect for this department and our people. They're the most dedicated people I've ever met. But you've got to be dedicated to be in this business."

Commonwealth Edison
Working for you.

ONE MORE hint which is from my own experience; if you have pearls and will be going into the Pacific-Orient; be sure and have them registered as well. Some Customs officials just don't want to believe a word you say. So to eliminate these problems list everything of value at the airport prior to departure.

Another helpful hint for international travel, but this does not have anything to do with customs: Do your money-changing early in the day. More often than not, currency fluctuations tend to make rates less favorable in the late afternoon. Happy travels.

Lakeside Rebekah Lodge

Our Mar. 5 meeting was well attended by our members, with Ida Wysoglad, Noble Grand, welcoming Sister Zella Larson, District No. 3 Vice President.

Sister Larson was also in attendance at Barrington for its installation of officers. Accompanying her were Agnes Ferris, Sherene Jones, Ida Wysoglad and Shirley Glenn.

Birthday greetings to Lillian Hand and Bernice Clark.

The Tri-State degree rally on Apr. 5 in Decatur is drawing near. Illinois will be the host state. Candidates from Missouri, Illinois and Indiana are to receive Rebekah and Odd-Fellow degrees.

Members wishing ticket information can contact Clare Horton of Lakeside Lodge.

Our next meeting, Mar. 19, will be our St. Patrick's Day Party.

CHECK YOUR MILEAGE

To determine the number of miles your car obtains from one gallon of gasoline, record the amount of gasoline added to the tank at each fill-up and the odometer reading. Divide the miles traveled since the previous fill-up by the gallons added at the last fill-up.

Table Tennis Greats To Perform Here

Two of the world's finest table-tennis players will be on display here Thursday, Apr. 3 as part of the all-new, all-star variety show accompanying the world-famous Harlem Globetrotters basketball team at Antioch Community High School for one game at 7:30 p.m. The show is sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry. Pres Reckers, chairman of this popular event, announces that tickets are now on sale through all Chamber of Commerce members. Posters distributed throughout the Antioch area indicate where tickets can be obtained.

Robert Ashley and Steve Dodgen will give Globetrotter fans a look at the fast-moving world of championship table tennis competition.

Ashley is the United States professional table tennis champion, while Dodgen is the current Norwegian professional and 1973 U.S. National Intercollegiate champion.

The 18-year-old Dodgen is probably the brightest young star on the international table tennis circuit, while the veteran

Ashley has long been recognized as one of America's truly great table tennis talents.

In addition to being one of the world's top players, Ashley is also recognized as one of the leading teachers and coaches of the sport. He was on the coaching staff of the history-making United States team that recently toured Red China.

Apaches Winding Up Fantastic Season

The wrestling Apaches of Antioch Upper Grade School have nearly completed their season, and have remained undefeated in 11 dual meets, won the conference team championship and the Mundelein tournament championship.

Last weekend the Apaches wrestled in the sectionals of state competition and narrowly missed third place by two points.

Four Apache wrestlers placed in the 20-team tough tournament, which included some of the best junior high school wrestling teams in Illinois. Placing first were Gene Lehn, Marvin Gibson and Jon Gibson. Kirk Sarmon placed third.

By placing first the Gibson brothers and Lehn have advanced to the state championship tournament at DeKalb on Mar. 14 and 15. This tournament will include the 16 best junior high wrestlers in each weight in the state of Illinois.

Baseball Meeting Monday

With baseball season just around the corner, plans are being made to get all of Antioch's leagues off to a good start for 1975.

A meeting will be held on Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Antioch Fire Station for all managers, and those who would be interested in a team. Applicants must present their qualifications to the league officers and directors.

The local leagues also are looking for qualified personnel who would be interested in umpiring games in the Little League and Babe Ruth divisions. Anyone interested should contact league president Bernie Gutowski at 395-0864 or the umpire-in-chief, Richard Kessler at 395-0222.

Registration dates have been set for the first two weekends in April. The exact dates and times will be announced in the near future.

Upper Grade Students To Play Faculty

The eighth grade students of the Antioch Upper Grade School will seek revenge next Wednesday as they face the teachers in the annual Student vs. Faculty volleyball and basketball clashes.

The games will be held Wednesday, Mar. 19 starting at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are available at the Upper Grade School or from any of the eighth grade basketball players and cheerleaders. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

Sequoits Play for Sectional Title

same as last year.

Naturally, they want to do better than that. A sectional championship will put them into a super-sectional game at DeKalb next Tuesday. So they are only three victories away from the state tournament at Champaign, where they would be among the "Elite Eight."

The Sequoits won the regional championship last Friday in their home gym, beating off Grant 59-52 in a tough game that was thrilling for the fans.

Grant actually led the Sequoits 25-22 at halftime, but then Antioch got hot. The Sequoits outscored Grant 20-2 in the next several minutes and suddenly enjoyed a 42-27 lead. Pretty soon they were ahead 47-31 and it appeared Grant was dead.

BUT, BANG, the Bulldogs fought back, outscoring Antioch 17-4 to close the gap to 52-48 with only two minutes remaining. It was still either team's ball game.

Antioch's Mike Perrone then scored on a backward layup, flipping the ball over his head

HOW TO GET THERE

Antioch fans motoring to Rockford Wednesday or Friday to see the Sequoits play in the sectional tournament can find the Rock Valley Junior College gym by following these directions:

The college is on the east edge of Rockford. You take Hy. 173 to Alpine Rd., which is the first road after you pass the Rockford Speedway. Turn left on Alpine to Riverside Rd. Then turn left again to Mulford Rd. Turn right on Mulford and you'll find the college just a short distance away.

and into the hoop. Then Bruce Tossey swished two free throws to put Antioch ahead 56-48 and, with a minute to play, Grant was finally finished off.

Earlier in the week Antioch had reached the regional finals by beating Round Lake 71-51. Russ Albano led Antioch in that game with 20 points. Scott Kimball scored 16, Mike Witt 12 and Perrone 11. Witt had 10 assists and Kevin Walpole 6. The two senior guards seemingly have improved with every game this season and are an important part of Antioch's championship lineup.

In Friday's win over Grant, Perrone led with 22 points, Albano hit 13, Witt 9 and Kimball 7. Coach Andrews credited Witt and Walpole with "fine floor play" in helping the Sequoits come from behind in the second half. Walpole fouled out with 6:39 to play and Bruce Tossey replaced him, "doing a very creditable job," according to Andrews.

League tournament.

In Sunday's championship game, Faith beat Jerusalem Lutheran of Morton Grove 56-22 with Lischewski once again hitting 46 points.

RICK NELSON

Antioch Wrestler Is National College Star

Antioch's Rick Nelson, wrestling for Western Illinois University, placed second last week in the national collegiate small-college tournament.

This weekend he goes to the national collegiate university competition at Princeton, N.J.

Rick had a perfect record of 19 wins and no losses or ties this season until he wound up second last week at East Stroudsburg, Pa.

Western's 167 pound Nelson was a 1974 All-American.

Last year, Nelson was headed for the No. 1 small-college spot until a knee injury sidelined him; he settled for sixth place.

Western Illinois' head wrestling coach, Mitsuo Nakai, says that Nelson's biggest asset is his ability to break the opponent down.

"I'm fast enough to use the single leg takedown to my advantage. Contrary to what many people think, I don't try to muscle my foe," said Nelson.

GESSE AUSBIE, BASKETBALL'S Court Jester, joins Ruth Buzzi and Rodney Allen Rippy during a break in taping the Trotters' smash Saturday morning series on CBS-TV, "The Harlem Globetrotters Popcorn Machine." The world's most famous sports team is coming to Antioch on Thursday, Apr. 3 at 7:30 p.m. for one game at Antioch Community High School, sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry. Halftime of a Globetrotter game features dazzling variety acts from around the world. Pres Reckers, chairman of the event, announced that tickets are now on sale through all Chamber of Commerce members. Posters distributed throughout the Antioch area indicate where tickets can be obtained.

Fire Protection System Displayed

LONG GROVE - the fire alarms rang recently and some fire control devices kicked in at the Kemper Insurance Company's Long Grove headquarters, but not one of the 80 firemen in the building responded to the call.

For one thing it was a deliberate false alarm.

For another, it was a demonstration of some of the most up-to-date fire protection and warning devices in the nation.

The occasion was the monthly meeting of the Lake County Firemen's Association, hosted by the Long Grove fire department and held at Kemper's international headquarters.

While the alarms were going off, firemen from Lake County fire departments witnessed the activation of an automatic carbondioxide extinguishing system and had the opportunity to see the operation of high expansion foam generating equipment usually installed in large warehouse facilities. Sprinkler systems were also viewed.

Kemper's fire protection training lab is one of the most comprehensive and up-to-date facilities in the nation, the company says.

The Lake County Firemen's Association is comprised of public fire departments in addition to large industrial corporations with a special interest in fire protection and safety.

VIP Dinner-Dance Tickets Going Fast

"Tickets are selling like hotcakes for the 7th Annual VIP Dinner-Dance Saturday, Mar. 22," according to ticket chairman Jack Boarini.

For $7.50 per person, you get a fabulous dinner from the kitchen of Kay Wells, plus the musical talents of the Scotch Lads," the chairman said.

"Kay has promised us roast round of beef, Swedish meat balls, chicken tetrazzini and rolled ham, accompanied by many other delectable surprises," he added.

The Scotch Lads have given up a weekend engagement to play for Antioch's VIPs, Elmer and Gert Zimmerman, and their guests. As in previous years, the State Bank of Antioch will pick up the tab for the band.

Hank Apostol and Don Hanson are creating the scenery to transform St. Peter's Social Center into a "Spring-time Park."

Receipts from ticket sales will be presented to St. Peter's school for its general education fund.

Only 500 tickets will be sold. They are available at the State Bank of Antioch, the First National Bank of Antioch, the Antioch Savings and Loan Association, and St. Peter's Rectory.

We like to think nothing is impossible to accomplish, but did you ever try to push toothpaste back in the tube?

VIP CO-CHAIRMAN Betty Podlin receives check from Dick Daniel, Vice President of the State Bank of Antioch, to pay for the services of the Band for the 7th Annual VIP Dinner-Dance on Saturday, Mar. 22.
